PURAFERREIRO

Informed with a style born of experience and a love of design, these modern objects are handcrafted with century-old techniques such as granulating and chasing.

Alongside unique specimens of premium jewelry, you will see superb limited edition series featuring forms inspired by the fruit of the physalis and lotus blossoms. Artisanry yields art; industrial manufacturing yields product. No mass-produced item can rival this handcrafted jewelry's beauty and aesthetic appeal.

Pura Ferreiro is synonymous with consummate craft, singular artistry, and superlative design. Timelessly elegant, it transcends the whims of changing fashions.
